O. 1162 dated the 4th May, 1960, has been obtained on the 30th July, 1984 to the following amendments made to the By-laws of the East India Cotton Association Ltd., Bombay, the same having been notified under Section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

Amendments

I. In clause (1) of By-law 35 for the words "not less than six", the words "not less than three" shall be substituted.

II. In By-Law 38 :

- (i) In sub-clause (i) of clause (B) for the words "within four days after service of written notice of that appointment in Bombay, or within seven days after service thereof elsewhere in India, or within fourteen days", the words "within ten days after service of written notice of that appointment in Bombay, or within fifteen days after service thereof elsewhere in India or within twenty days" shall be substituted.
- (ii) In clause (F) for the words "within ten days in the case of parties in Bombay and fifteen days in the case of either of the parties being elsewhere in India and twenty days", the words "within fifteen days in the case of parties in Bombay and twenty days in the case of either of the parties being elsewhere in India and thirty days" shall be substituted.

III. In By-law 41 :

- (i) In clause (b) for the abbreviation and figure "Rs. 2500", the abbreviation and figure "Rs. 5000" shall be substituted.
- (ii) In sub-clause (iii) of clause (c) for the abbreviation and figure "Rs. 350", the abbreviations, figures and words "Rs. 1500 for members and Rs. 2000 for non-members" shall be substituted.

IV. The existing By-law 99 shall be substituted by the following :—

"By law 99 :—In all transactions, for the delivery of cotton payment save as provided by Clause (3) of By-law 54B may be demanded in cash against delivery in the sellers jaitha and/or godowns for the whole or any portion of the bales sold, but the fact that the seller has not insisted on payment at the time of delivery shall not imply or be construed or be deemed to mean that the seller has given credit to the buyer. The seller in respect of any such delivery including any delivery under By-law 54B shall have a lien on all bales delivered and/or on all bales in his possession under the contract until payment for the same has been made in full including all charges there against and which payment can be demanded at any time.

This lien on such cotton shall, wherever delivery has been given and payment not received, also extend to cover any goods including cloth, yarn etc. produced and/or processed, and/or goods in process in the hands of and/or also on assets of the buyer and/or his successors.

In no case, shall the buyer and/or his successor have the right to take possession of and/or to dispose off and/or to deal with such raw cotton in any form forming the subject matter of any contract as between the seller and the buyer until the payment in full is actually made thereagainst to the seller in terms of the aforesaid clauses hereof.

The right of possession and/or utilisation of goods shall not vest in the buyer in any form until the actual payment thereagainst is made and/or if for any reason not made shall be subject to all the provisions of the clauses mentioned hereinabove and subject to the general By-laws of the East India Cotton Association Ltd. as may be existing or as may be enacted from time to time."
